Any deaf, hard of hearing, and late-deafened Floridians can be a member of FAD, with privileges including the opportunity to serve on committees, get invitations to FAD events, and get the FAD E-Bulletin. Affiliated organizations will receive the same benefits, as well as referral services. Hearing people, professionals, parents of deaf/hard of hearing children, and non-Florida residents can be an associate member with the understanding that they may participate in any meetings and committee activities, but cannot vote or run for office. Any businesses, organizations, or agencies can be an affiliated organization/business with the same privileges as an associate member.
